Be Considerate of Other Visitors: Sounds Abound!

Objective:

- To educate students about the importance of respecting the outdoor experience of others.

Instructions:

- Step 1: Ideally this exercise will take place outside, so if possible take students out of class room.
- Step 2: Have students silently sit in a circle, close their eyes, and listen to all of the noise that surrounds them
- Step 3: Discuss what the students heard.
- Step 4: Repeat Step 2, but this time have half of the class talk over the natural sounds.
- Step 5: Discuss the difference in experiences.
